

Chez

Fanny - Les Beants

sa photographie nous plongeant des les premières secondes dans le silence et l'isolement du Grand Nord... et de son peuple

Silence tranquille qui enterre la souffrance que
cause l'isolement

Prisonniers des même problématiques (drogues alcool, violence,
...) que le reste de l'arrière, qui n'ont pas les même ressources d'aide :
~~le suicide est à la hausse
dans le nord~~

Paul passe à l'acte :
le suicide.

Après s'être fait arrêter, il a souffert énormément de coupe et de la présence de son amour.

La peur au ventre et ~~châti de se suicider au pendre~~
~~à l'idée de se faire~~ subit de nouveau la solitude

le duo Aude et Sébastien ont su nous initier
à une intimité privilégiée
entre NIKUSI et Paulysie

la place centrale
qu'occupe la chasse et
sa nécessité - autant
par la spiritualité
que par la survie
est palpable

Le 28 Mars 2017.

The movie The Giant Made By audi.
Lerout. Leresque. et Sebastian Rist 2016. it was film up north in the Village of Inukjuak and Pauline. Its about a couple trying to have a normal life, but struggling and having trouble with the law trying to survive and getting by with the fishing and hunting which seem to be a way of life up north. Wanted their love life to work, and to start their own family, which is respectable.
I did like the beauty of the nature scene, the sea, the wild animal, and spirit influence made some of the scene magical. I did admire the grandma that bled her baby to get him out of jail and help him. The family is tight.

The end of family movie is kind of sad.
cause Paul committed suicide. But still finish the movie in memories of.

Thank you for sharing

The Film Chez les géants

By

(Aude Leroux-Levesque et Sebastien Rest, 2016)

I thought it started out very slow, I mean it took me some time to grab the concept of the movie. It's not my kind of movie it wasn't terrible but it's not for me. and I can't really comment on the life in Inukjuak and the film gave me my first look in side a inuit village and it gave a negative and a positive view about their Beliefs, way of life, Spiritual. But for me their should have been more to the film

"Chez les Géduts" (Тхукжуак) (Aude Leroux Leresque et Sébastien List 2016)
"Paulisiz"

L'action se passe dans le grand nord. ou les 2 auteurs ont passés presque 3 ans début 2013 fin 2016. (Par période.)

Un beau film très réaliste super prise de vue.

C'est vraiment. comme me cherches.
La vie dans le grand nord. est très difficile.

~~On~~ On n'y ressent beaucoup d'amour.
beaucoup de solidarité.

Mais la malité nous attrapés assez vite.
le problème d'alcool, le suicide...
Aucune ressource...???

En conclusion j'ai beaucoup aimé.

il faut qu'il soit pu...

il faut sensibiliser les gens. à cette situation.

The movie was soo touching me, I know Paulusee since he was born, I was seeing him growing up when he was little boy, when I watch the movie, I was crying because he was a good boy, he was a special baby, I know that if he's alive, he would be so much better if he was just living. I felt bad for what happened to him, mostly for his family's, there where really love him, I think he was not see that. I like the way I see in the movie about hanging and the real life story, I thank to the workers who made this movie cuz I see paulusee but some how I'm not happy about that cuz he suicide. I also understand how he felt, but it's too late to help him now, I think the movie can help ppl's. in my home town, but some how I'm not sure because of the family's, if they wanna see him there. I mean in the movie. I hope they ask the real parents before show it to everybody.
Thank you so much.
